PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

DR. KENNETH L. SCHWAB
President

Dr. Kenneth L. Schwab, an award-winning educator with a keen interest in leadership and strategic planning, was appointed Centenary College's 34th President, August 7, 1991.

His efforts to maintain Centenary's reputation as one of the premier liberal arts colleges in the nation has resulted in enhanced student life and increased academic quality during his tenure.

Dr. Schwab came to Centenary from the University of South Carolina where he was Executive Vice President for Administration (1988-91) after serving as Executive Assistant to the President for Institutional Planning (1986-88).

From 1970-1986, Dr. Schwab held administrative positions at Guilford College in Greensboro, NC. He was the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Residential Operations (1970-74), Dean of Students (1974-80) and Assistant to the President for Institutional Planning and Community Relations (1980-86).

Dr. Schwab holds a doctor of education degree (1978) from Indiana University, master of education degree (1972) from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro and a bachelor of science degree (1969) from Purdue University, where he graduated with honors as the 1969 Outstanding Senior. He has done post-graduate studies at both Johns Hopkins University and Harvard.

Dr. Schwab and his wife, Patricia, who also has a doctorate in education, are the parents of three sons: Kempton, Carlton, and Christopher.

DR. DAVID BEDARD
Director of Athletics

Dr. David Bedard has served as athletic director for Centenary since January 1, 2000. In that time, the college has seen significant improvements in athletic facilities and relations between the athletics department and the public.

In the time that Bedard has been AD, Centenary has added a new baseball facility (W. Peyton Shehee Stadium), new scorer's tables and chairs for the basketball and volleyball teams, and grandstand seating for the softball team. Within the past six months, the Gold Dome roof has been completely refurbished, lights have been added to the soccer field, and a bathroom/concession stand serving baseball, softball, and soccer has been finished.

Before taking over as athletic director, Bedard served as a professor in the health and exercise science department for more than 18 years. He can empathize with the student-athletes and coaches under his administration, having been both a student-athlete and a coach at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches, LA. He was a three-time All-American gymnast and a gymnastics coach before moving on to get his doctorate in college teaching of health and physical education from Texas A&M University in Commerce.

Bedard still has many things to take care of as the leader of the athletic department, none more important than placing Centenary into a conference in Division I of the NCAA. The school is competing as an independent for the third consecutive year after spending 21 years as a charter member of the Trans America Athletic Conference (now known as the Atlantic Sun Conference). Bedard is working every day to change the situation and place Centenary in the best possible conference.

Bedard is married to the former Carol Grant. They have two children: Emily and Julie.

CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

A Rich Tradition

Since its founding in 1825, Centenary College has cherished its heritage as a small, progressive liberal arts college. Its formula of close interaction between students and faculty, innovative academic programs and a dynamic community prepares its students for the future.

Centenary takes pride in its outstanding reputation in higher education. Its average acceptance rate for medical and dental school is 80 percent (as compared with the national average of 30 percent), and 90 percent of its graduates are accepted to law school. Additionally, 98 percent of its graduates are employed within one month of graduation. Centenary's excellent academic program, its mixture of activities and social events, and the quality of those who make up the campus community combine to create an exceptional life experience for its students.

A Location for Learning

Centenary College's campus is located a few miles from downtown Shreveport, Louisiana, which offers its students an incredible array of opportunities for learning and entertainment. The natural beauty of its landscape and Georgian style architecture help to create the perfect atmosphere in which to live, learn and have fun. However, the unparalleled splendor of the Centenary campus is only part of what makes its location unique. Centenary students enjoy the arts, music, theatrical events, and national entertainment headliners. They are able to intern at one of several regional medical centers or a Fortune 500 company. They experience a night life that includes art festivals, concert tours, a symphony, opera and ballet company. They enjoy delicious Cajun cuisine from any number of fine restaurants, or explore the riverfront area with its parks, boating and scenery.

Academics: Dynamic and Diverse

At Centenary, small class sizes allow instructors to mentor their students and to know them as individuals. The unique mix of personalized instruction (53 percent of courses have 10 students or less), superior facilities and equipment, and teachers who are scholars in their field combine to create a first-rate academic program. However, a small student body does not translate into fewer opportunities. Whether a student has a specific career path in mind or they are still exploring their options, Centenary has a number of diverse program offerings.

Faculty: Partners in Learning

Centenary professors groom their students to compete with the best, whether that means guiding them through original research projects, helping them to design a professional career plan, or calling contacts to connect them with jobs and graduate schools. Centenary's faculty aid students in the navigation of the path of academic and personal growth. They encourage, advise, and challenge while helping students fulfill their academic potential.

In their classrooms, learning is anything but passive. It is not uncommon for faculty members to host dinners and other special events for students at their homes or to enjoy meals with students in the campus dining hall. There is a sense of family and community that exists at Centenary. Faculty are revered as mentors and trusted as friends.

As professionals, Centenary faculty are scholars in their fields, having received degrees from such prestigious institutions as Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, Duke, Vanderbilt, Columbia, Johns Hopkins, Virginia and Emory. Over 92 percent hold the highest degree in their respective fields. They are a diverse group of individuals with one thing in common: they love to teach.

CENTENARY COLLEGE OF LOUISIANA

Facilities and Research

World-class theater and music facilities, a film and video production studio, over 300 personal computer stations, and a nationally accredited art museum are some of the facilities to which students have daily access.

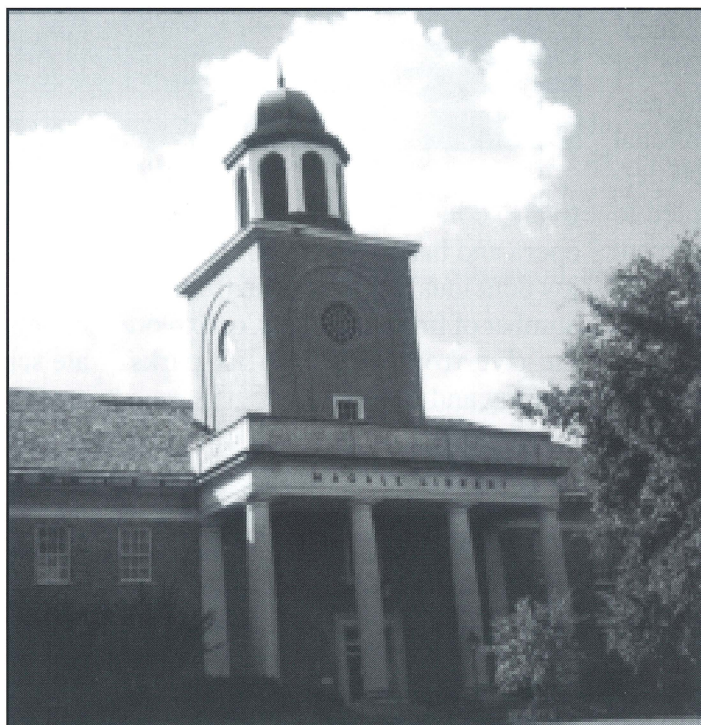

In the past six years, Centenary has produced three Goldwater Scholarship recipients, the premier undergraduate award in the field of science, mathematics, and engineering. Centenary boasts about its award-winning publication, Le Tintamarre, the only French language newspaper in the country completely created by students. In 1996, Centenary received a prestigious Howard Hughes grant which will enable Centenary to develop new cooperative learning programs to enhance the study of science. The biophysics department recently received a grant to develop a novel way to pinpoint oxygen deficiency inside the body which will help treat strokes and other circulatory diseases. Whatever a student's goal is, Centenary's first-rate facilities will help him or her reach it.

Creative Experiences

At the heart of a liberal arts curriculum is the concept of openness to new ideas. Centenary embraces this philosophy and prides itself in its careful consideration and implementation of new programs. While never abandoning its basic precepts, Centenary remains on the cutting edge of curriculum enhancements. All students participate in the Centenary Plan — a three-pronged strategy to ensure their complete preparation for life beyond graduation.

"Career Exploration" enables students to participate in a systematic and planned inquiry into career opportunities through self-assessment, awareness and developing a personal profile of accomplishments. Through the "Intercultural Experience" students gain the global perspective necessary for them to be successful in today's multicultural world by living in a culture within the U.S. or abroad. Participating in "Community Service" allows a student to better understand citizenship in our society by contributing to it. As Centenary helps students acquire and develop new skills, students begin to share them by helping others in the community.

In addition to the Centenary Plan experience, all students participate in one "May Module." The "module" as students refer to it, is a one-month intensive study of a particular field of interest to them. This is a great opportunity for students to do more in-depth discovery in a topic related to their major or to select a program that is outside of their academic field. Students can choose from a variety of options such as hiking the Grand Canyon, exploring Costa Rica, volunteering at the Special Olympics or working within the Shreveport community.

Student Life

Centenary students reach their potential by participating in both academic and social events. The campus community is incredibly active and multi-faceted with an array of activities from which to choose. Students have an opportunity to make a real difference in the quality of life at Centenary through participation in clubs, organizations and activities.

Many of its students are active in the student government and student media.

Others participate in its Greek system, while still others get involved in groups focused on environmental, political and social change. The campus plays host to distinguished speakers, musical ensembles and choirs, comedians, theater productions, concerts, and more. Whether they choose to continue playing their favorite sport or instrument or seek challenges in areas yet uncharted, Centenary has an activity and program to meet everyone's interest.

THE GOLD DOME

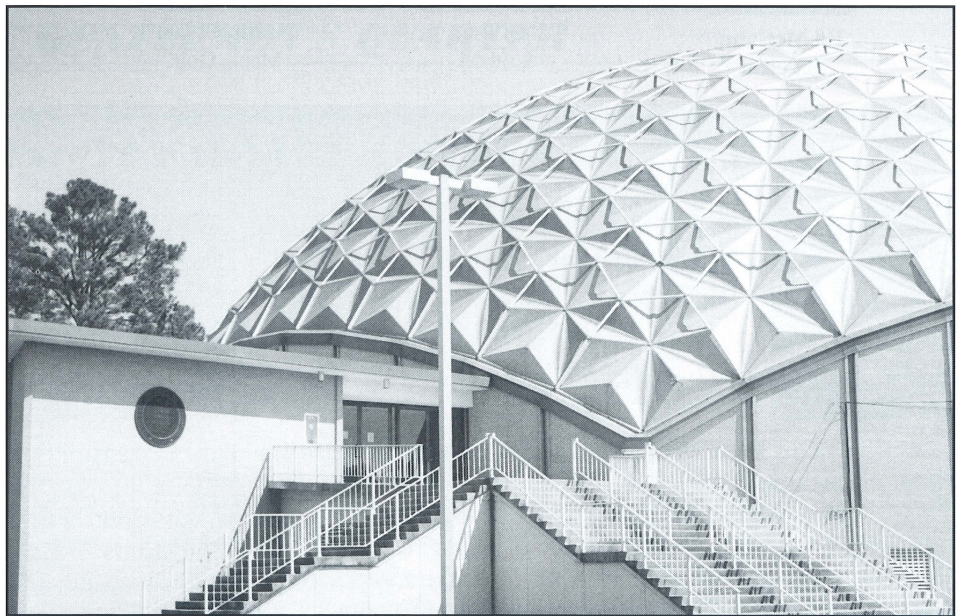

“HOME OF THE GENTS”

The geodesic Gold Dome, constructed in 1970, is a landmark located just south of the main Centenary College campus. Besides housing the Centenary basketball teams, the Gold Dome is also the home of the Centenary Ladies volleyball team.

The multi-purpose facility, constructed at a cost of $1.3 million plus equipment, has a seating capacity of 3,000 with cushioned armchairs on the upper level and bleachers on both sides of the floor.

Unique features of the structure include indirect lighting and the attractive gold anodized aluminum dome. The completely air-conditioned facility also contains office space for the athletic department, a classroom, a hospitality area, and seven large carpeted dressing rooms.

Like the building itself, the floor area is multi-purpose. A portable hardwood floor was inserted in 1989 for basketball. With a Tartan-based surface underneath, the floor area can easily be converted into two crosscourt basketball courts, eight volleyball courts, or 16 badminton courts.

The dome was designed by the Shreveport architectural firm of Somdal-Smitherman-Sorensen-Sherman and Associates.

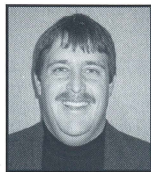

Whitaker Construction Company of Shreveport was the contractor and the Temcor Company of California erected the gold-colored dome.

SPORTS INFORMATION

DAVID PRATT
Sports Information
Director

David Pratt was promoted to the head sports information director position on July 1, 2001, after serving two years as an assistant. He serves as the primary media contact for women's basketball as well as baseball, men's and women's soccer, rifle, cross country and gymnastics. In addition, he assists with the maintenance of the Centenary athletics website, and he has been a stringer for The (Shreveport) Times during the high school football season.

A 1999 graduate of Centenary, Pratt is a native of Houston, TX. While earning his bachelor of arts degree in history at Centenary, he was a shortstop on the Gents baseball team and a member of the history honor fraternity Phi Alpha Theta. He is presently a member of both CoSIDA and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association (LSWA). This past summer, Pratt married the former Keeley Larned, a 2001 graduate of Centenary.

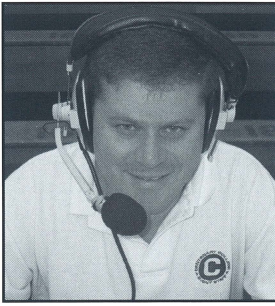

JASON BEHENNA
Assistant Sports
Information Director

Jason Behenna is in his second year as the assistant sports information director at Centenary. He is the primary media contact for men's basketball, softball, volleyball, golf and tennis. He also assists with the maintenance of the athletics website, and he served as color commentator for several Gents basketball radio broadcasts last season.

Originally from Everett, MA, Behenna graduated from the University of Southern California in 1996 with a degree in print journalism and political science. He was chosen as a Trustee Scholar and received a full-tuition scholarship to attend USC. While at USC, he served as program director of KSCR, the student-run campus radio station. In November 2000, he appeared on the ESPN sports trivia game show "2 Minute Drill" and won a first-round match of the inaugural tournament.

GENTS ON THE AIR

Doug Greenwald returns this season to handle the play-by-play for all of the Gents' games this season. Greenwald handled the home games last season and is enthusiastic about taking over as the "Voice of the Gents."

For the last two years, Greenwald has served as the director of broadcasting and the play-by-play voice of the Shreveport Swamp Dragons, a Double-A baseball franchise in the San Francisco Giants organization.

Centenary Gents basketball will appear on three local radio stations this season. The majority of the road games plus selected home games will be heard on KYLA 106.7 FM. Those road games not heard on KYLA can be found on KOKA 980 AM. The rest of the home games will be available on KSCL 91.3 FM, Centenary's student-run station.

THE GENTLEMEN'S QUARTER

For the second consecutive year, Centenary head coach Kevin Johnson has put together a television show that gives the Centenary and Shreveport communities a chance to get an inside look at the Gents basketball program.

The Gentlemen's Quarter television show, hosted by play-by-play broadcaster Doug Greenwald, will feature commentary from Johnson as well as highlights from recently played games, analysis and previews of upcoming opponents, and interviews with players, coaches, and other special guests.

The show will air on the Shreveport Channel, the local Time Warner Cable station. There are six shows scheduled to be taped during the season.

GENTS IN THE COMMUNITY

CENTENARY BASKETBALL CAMPS

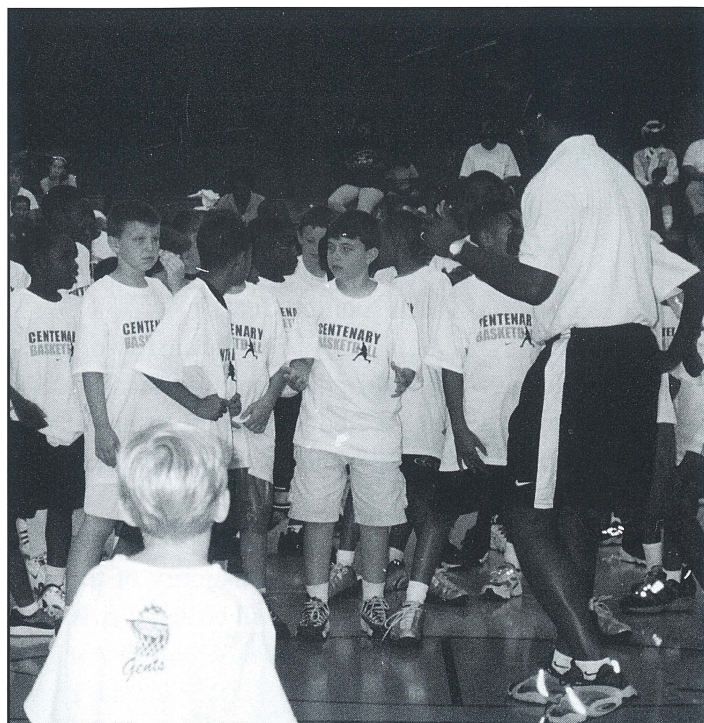

The Kevin Johnson Centenary Gents basketball camps are a good way for kids ages 5 to 18 to work on and improve their basketball skills.

The camp is divided into four different sessions and will take place in June 2002. The first set of individual camps are split into two age groups, one for ages 5-12 and the other for ages 13-18.

There are also plans for a more specialized camp for guards and post players. That is followed by a second session of the individual skills camp for kids 5-12. All of these individual camps will stress improvement of individual skills as well as the concepts of team play.

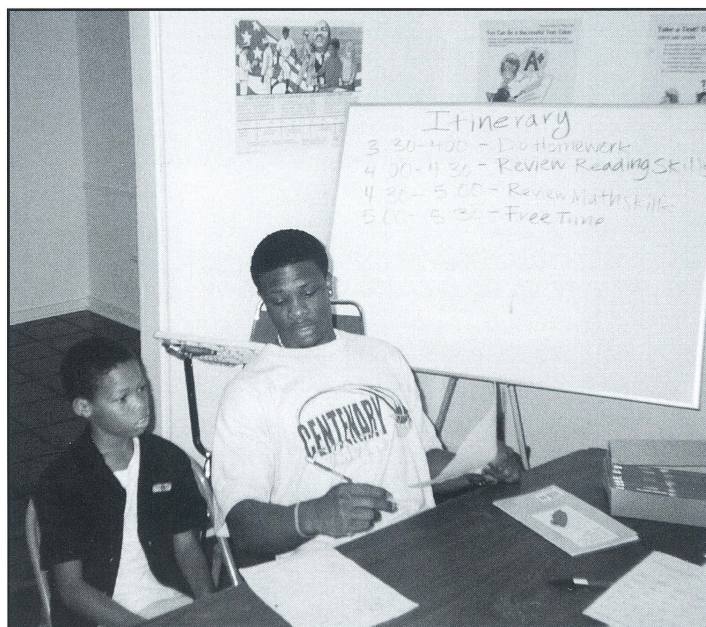

The final session of camp will be a Tri-State Championship Team Camp, which will feature AAU, middle school and high school teams. This camp will stress more team play, including offensive and defensive fundamentals, as well as more complex strategies involving all aspects of the game.

"We are very excited to be offering our camps and to be able to add a team camp," said coach Kevin Johnson. "We hope to influence some kids who may not be die-hard basketball players to love the sport as much as we do, and we also want to help these teams take the next step in their evolution as a team."

Centenary head coach Kevin Johnson gives instruction to a captive audience during one of the basketball camps held last summer.

"ALWAYS KIDS" AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Senior Kevin Atamah tutors a young student at the 100 Men of Shreveport program. This mentoring program is geared towards teaching young people about taking responsibility as adults through interaction with role models such as members of the Gents basketball team.

One of the most unique aspects of the Centenary Gents basketball team is the commitment of the players and coaches to the Shreveport-Bossier community.

Two of the ways that the Gents are able to show that commitment is with the "Always Kids" program and the community service programs that the coaches have implemented.

The "Always Kids" program is a way for the Centenary basketball team to influence the younger children in the community. The coaches and players travel to various schools in the area, spreading a positive message about the importance of education and the depth that athletics can add to a child's life.

"The kids always seem to respond well to us, especially the players," said coach Kevin Johnson. "But in addition to that, this gives our players an idea of the amount of influence they can have over young people."

The Gents also get into the community through their holiday community service projects, mainly over the Thanksgiving break. Because the players are still actively involved in the season during this time, they spend their holiday season helping others. Whether it is serving food at a homeless shelter or just spending time with people who are less fortunate than they are, the Gents enjoy their time in the community.

"It is very rewarding for us as a team and as a coaching staff," said Johnson. "It makes us appreciative of what we have and aware of how much we can help others."

Head Coach: Kevin Johnson (Texas-Pan American 1988)

 Roy Garcia II (Texas-Pan American 1996)
 Harris Adler (Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Sciences 1998)

2001-02 GENTS SEASON OUTLOOK

Kevin Johnson enters his third year as head coach of the Centenary Gents with an interesting challenge. He needs to replace the leading scorer in Division I, a man who set many Centenary records and finished second on the all-time Gent scoring list, a mere 11 points behind the leader.

But Johnson knows that one player alone will not replace the impact Ronnie McCollum had on the program. The coaching staff wants to move away from having one player be the focal point of the offense. Instead, they are looking for three or four players to come forward and share the scoring duties.

"This team is undergoing a major change this year," Johnson said. "I'm still expecting good things from them. Overall, our talent level has improved, and while winning is not guaranteed, we have a basis to start improving on last year's results."

Not only did the Gents lose McCollum, they also lost Olufemi Odukoya, the leading rebounder the past two seasons, and Miroslav Ilic, another player who provided leadership and experience last season. The team enters the season with only four lettermen returning, meaning that many of this year's players will be experiencing Division I basketball for the first time.

However, Johnson is very excited about the team he has assembled this year. In his opinion, the players he has now are more athletic and versatile. They easily fit into the coaching staff's philosophy of tough defense leading to good offense. The coaches hope the players will have the stamina and willpower to play hard the entire season.

"Last year we had a nine-game road trip in December, and it affected the team in February," Johnson said. "They played well in spots, but couldn't finish teams off. This year, with our improved athleticism and a better schedule, I hope that they will finish the year much better."

With as many as five players able to play more than one position plus added depth in the paint, Johnson is optimistic about improving on last year's 8-19 effort. The team needs to improve their play on the road (no road wins in 2000-01) and take advantage of more home games (13, as opposed to 11 last year) in order to accomplish that goal.

"The potential is there to have a better team defensively. If we can show our quickness, outrebound the other team, and take better shots offensively, we will definitely show an improvement," said Johnson.

GUARDS

Kevin Atamah (Richardson, TX) returns this season after taking over the starting point guard position halfway through last season. He scored in double-digits nine times last season, including 18 points in arguably the Gents' biggest victory, a 74-63 victory over Louisiana Tech in front of a near-capacity crowd at the Gold Dome.

Atamah's ability to score points will be important as Johnson moves him to the shooting guard position. He will still see time as the point guard, but Johnson believes he has two players that can each team with Atamah to form an excellent backcourt combination.

A transfer from St. Peter's College, Andrew Wisniewski (Staten Island, NY) could not play in any games for the Gents last season, but was able to practice with the team and become familiar with the team's style of play. Johnson is hoping that Wisniewski's quickness and court awareness will break down the opposing team's defense and lead to easier baskets.

"Andrew gives the team a different dimension, in that he can handle the ball, and he is extremely quick," said Johnson. "Our opponents will be less willing to press us when they see how he can break the press and give us easy opportunities."

Cornelius Riley (Chicago, IL), a two-year starter at Kennedy-King College and a teammate of Kevin Garnett and Michael Wright at Farragut Academy in Chicago, will also see playing time at the point guard spot. Johnson likes the fact that Riley distributes the ball well and will look for him to give Atamah and Wisniewski a rest without losing too much on the court.

FORWARDS

Johnson uses a three-guard lineup on the court, so the small forward position is actually a shooting guard. He has several options when filling this position, depending on if he is looking for size or speed.

The future of the Centenary program is dependent on players such as Michael Gale (Lafayette, LA), returning after a breakthrough freshman campaign. Gale finished as the second-leading scorer on the team, and his vertical leap excited fans in the Gold Dome many times during the 2000-2001 season.

Gale broke his wrist over the summer and there was some concern among the coaching staff that he might not be ready for the season. However, Gale has shown in pre-season conditioning drills that he will be ready for the season, which is a big relief for Johnson.

"Mike has the ability to be an impact player for us this season. Towards the end of last year, Ronnie seemed to pass the torch to him to lead us over the next few seasons, and Mike has shown a willingness to take that role and fulfill his potential," said Johnson.

Like Wisniewski, DeMario Hooper (Texarkana, TX) transferred to Centenary from another Division I school (Tulsa) and could not play in any games for the Gents last season. However, he practiced with the team and he will be relied on heavily to score points this season.

Johnson is looking for the former McDonald's High School All-America nominee to make plays that nobody else can make. Hooper saw limited action at Tulsa two years ago, so he does have some idea of the competition he will face at the Division I level.

DeAndre Cornelius (Joliet, IL), the leading scorer in his region at the junior college level, will also see some playing time at the wing position. Cornelius averaged 24 points per game while at Carl Albert State College, and Johnson is hopeful that his scoring prowess will continue for the Gents.

"DeAndre is a tremendous shooter," Johnson said. "At 6'6", he is also able to post-up players and take the ball inside, something that we have been looking for in our third guard since I started coaching here."

Another player to watch at the wing is Josh Thibodeaux (Eunice, LA). Thibodeaux led all Louisiana high school players in scoring the last two seasons, and his willingness to shoot will be an asset for the Gents.

With the departure of Odukoya, Johnson is looking at three newcomers to fill the void, especially in getting rebounds and the tough points inside the paint.

Melvin Dews (Oakwood, TX) is a 6'5", 250-pound forward who attended Jacksonville Junior College the past two seasons. The 3rd-team All-Conference selection will look to use his size to outmuscle his opponent, plus the coaching staff thinks that he can contribute a lot offensively.

At 6'5" and 215 pounds, Ronald Mickel (Oklahoma City, OK) has the same body type as Odukoya. The coaches like the fact that he is a tough, rugged player who doesn't mind banging underneath the basket with opposing players.

Only a freshman, Chad MacLies (Kingwood, TX) will be given some time to develop into a solid power forward. A natural small forward, MacLies will need to learn the intricacies of the power forward position before he gains significant playing time.

"Chad has been the biggest surprise of the conditioning program," said Johnson. "He has shown that he can post-up opposing players and score. If he continues this progress, he will compete for playing time this season."

CENTERS

Both Brien Rabenhorst (Baton Rouge, LA) and Kresimir Tomorad (Zapresic, Croatia) return after splitting time at the center position last season. Rabenhorst is right now the leading candidate to be the starting center, but he will receive heavy competition from Tomorad.

"Brien and Kresimir each need to improve their production both in scoring and rebounding. We need tough defense from them to keep our opponents away from the basket and make it harder for them to score on us," Johnson said.

At 6'10", Jason Zimmer (Nuevo, CA) gives the team added size under the basket. However, the freshman lacks the strength to compete at the collegiate level right now, and the coaches believe it will be a challenge for him to see significant playing time this season.

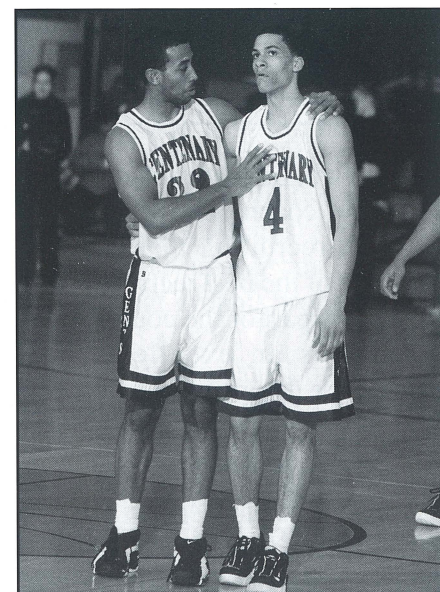

SCHEDULE

As an independent, Centenary must schedule all 27 games individually rather than having 16-18 games already scheduled as a result of conference play. Most of the time, that means playing teams from big schools on the road and struggling to schedule enough home games to fill out the year.

This year, the Gents have been able to schedule 13 home games, including the likes of 2001 NCAA Tournament participant Northwestern State, Big 12 member Texas A&M, as well as in-state rivals Louisiana Tech and Southern.

"The schedule this year is more favorable to us. We get more home games, plus there is no nine-game road trip that will tire the team out," said Johnson. "I am very happy that we were able to schedule so many home games, especially as an independent."

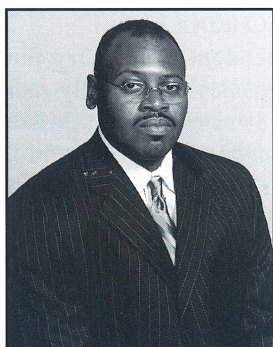

The road schedule is still tough for Centenary, as they will travel to play Vanderbilt, Baylor, and Rice. The Gents head West twice, the first time right after Christmas to participate in a tournament hosted by Utah State, a team that upset Ohio State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. At the end of the season, they will travel to the Pacific Northwest to face Pac-10 opponent Washington State.

With the departure of Ronnie McCollum (left), the Gents will depend on Michael Gale (right) this season.

COACHES

GENTS HEAD COACH KEVIN JOHNSON

Kevin Johnson enters his third year as the head coach of the Centenary College Gentlemen after two years as the top assistant to former coach Billy Kennedy. Johnson is the first African-American head coach in the history of Centenary, and he has used his vast experience as a player and coach to cope with the challenges of being a Division I head coach.

Johnson came to Centenary after serving as an assistant coach at Texas-Pan American during the 1996-97 season. Johnson attended UTPA as a student, where he played for the Broncs and starred for the team at shooting guard. Johnson still ranks 11th on the all-time leading scorer's list at UTPA.

In his sophomore season, the Broncs finished 20-8 under the direction of Lon Kruger, now the head coach for the Atlanta Hawks. In his senior season, Johnson led the team in scoring (16.1), field goal percentage (.492), three point field goal percentage (.574) and free throw percentage (.793).

In 1988, Johnson was named first-team All-American South Conference after leading the conference in three point field goal percentage, and finishing seventh nationally.

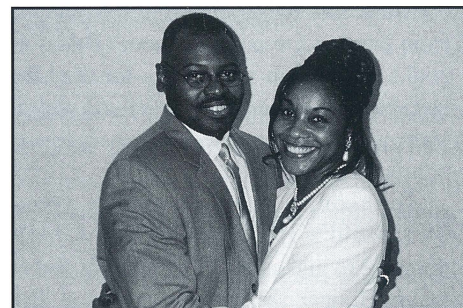

Upon receiving his degree in marketing from UTPA in 1988, Johnson headed overseas to play for the Lieceter Riders in Lieceter, England. After a year in Europe, Johnson returned home to serve as an assistant coach at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, LA, in 1989. While with the Demons, Johnson recruited Larry Terry, a star for NSU who currently ranks 13th on the Demons all-time leading scorer's list.

In 1990, Johnson headed back to England to become player/head coach for the Oldham Celtics. He led the Carlsberg League in scoring with 33 points per game, and led the Celtics to a league championship in 1992 with a 25-1 record.

In 1993, Johnson returned to his alma mater to receive his teaching certification before moving to Bryan High School in Bryan, Texas as an assistant coach. He remained there while his wife, the former Roishene Williams of San Angelo, Texas, finished her graduate studies from Texas A&M University.

Johnson returned to the collegiate coaching ranks in 1996, when he joined the staff of UTPA as an assistant.

Johnson is a native of Morgan City, Louisiana. He is the son of Dave and Lelia Johnson, who still reside in Morgan City. Johnson has two brothers: Rodney, a Kansas City businessman, and Dave III, a former Syracuse All-American and 1992 number one draft pick of the Portland Trailblazers.

PRAISE FOR COACH JOHNSON

"Kevin will be an outstanding head coach. His work ethic in recruiting makes him one of the best recruiters in this part of the country. He is an excellent choice for this position."

Billy Kennedy
Head Coach
Southeastern Louisiana

Former Gents
Head Coach

"Kevin is one of the hardest working young coaches in our profession. He is a very knowledgeable coach that will represent Centenary College in a first class way both on and off the court."

Lon Kruger
Head Coach
Atlanta Hawks

Johnson's College
Coach at UTPA
(1984-86)

"Kevin is a quality guy. He's the kind of man that parents should want their sons to be around."

Tim Martin
Head Boys Basketball
Coach
Longview High School
Longview, Texas

"Kevin's plan doesn't just include coaching. He is committed to teaching kids and he wants them to do the right thing away from the floor."

Q&A WITH COACH JOHNSON

1. What are your goals as you move forward in your coaching career?

I am a builder. I like to put things together. I smile when I see things come together in a good way. It is my goal to build a solid winning program in every way ... from the court to the classroom. When young men leave our program, I want them to have knowledge, skills, and work ethic to be successful and productive in society.

2. What is the impact of playing a balanced schedule this year (13 home, 14 road)?

I still feel like we are far away from having a balanced schedule, but I think our schedule has gotten better in number of home games. I think it is equally important to have home games in good position or sequence. For example, it is good to have a homestand of three or four games in a row, but you try to avoid having three or more games in a row on the road. That has been the most difficult thing for us to overcome being a Division I independent.

3. What is your responsibility as a college coach?

There are several things I feel you have to do as a coach at this level. Through basketball we have to teach young men to be responsible, accountable, and how to work hard. I want a team that acts responsibly, is accountable for their actions, and plays as hard as they can. I understand that they may not always play well, but they can always play hard.

4. What should people watch for on this year's squad?

There are several things people should look for from this year's team. We are quicker, stronger, and faster in terms of our personnel which should allow us to play a little faster. While we don't have one person who could average 30 points a game, I feel like we have four to five guys who could score in double figures. I don't think we will be as predictable this year as we were last year.

5. What is the current state of Centenary Basketball?

We have done a good job being competitive in our current condition as an independent. We have and must continue to recruit higher quality players to our program and develop the young players in the program so that when we find a conference home, we can be immediately in a position to win.

ASSISTANT COACH ARTURO ORMOND

Arturo Ormond is in his third year as an assistant coach at Centenary College. At Centenary, Ormond's responsibilities include recruiting, academic monitoring, strength training, and scouting, as well as teaching post play and team defense on the court.

Ormond is very familiar with Gents head coach Kevin Johnson. Both Ormond and Johnson are graduates and played at the University of Texas-Pan American, though not together. However, they did coach together as assistants for UTPA.

A native of Chicago, Ormond played for UTPA from 1988-91. He proved to be a steady point guard, and he was a key player on the last squad to win over 20 games in one season.

After earning his master's degree from UTPA in 1993, Ormond returned to Chicago to begin his coaching career. He joined William Nelson's staff as an assistant at Farragut High School, and he helped the team finish with a 24-5 record and a fourth-place finish in the city championship. The following summer, Ormond had a brief opportunity to coach NBA superstar Kevin Garnett, a graduate of Farragut.

In 1994, Ormond was hired as an assistant coach at Tuskegee University under coach Lonnie Williams. At Tuskegee, Ormond was introduced to the many aspects of collegiate coaching. He played a role in recruiting, scheduling, budgeting, strength and conditioning, and on-the-floor teaching. He was also the head cross country coach that season.

In 1995, Ormond left Division II Tuskegee for Division I UTPA. He joined Mark Adams' staff at his alma mater, where he remained as an assistant coach for two years. During his second year, Adams brought Kevin Johnson in as an assistant.

In 1997, Ormond rejoined coach Lonnie Williams at the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore, where he served as recruiting coordinator until Johnson became head coach at Centenary. Johnson asked Ormond to be on his staff, and Ormond did not hesitate to accept.

Ormond's wife, Marina, is a school teacher and head track coach at Caddo Parish Magnet High School in Shreveport.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROY GARCIA II

Assistant Coach

Roy Garcia II joins the Centenary Gents basketball staff after spending five years as an assistant coach at schools in Texas. He will work with the guards as well as help with recruiting, travel arrangements, overseeing the student-athletes' academic performances, and other duties assigned to him by head coach Kevin Johnson.

Garcia spent the past three seasons as the assistant coach at St. Edward's University in Austin, Texas. He was the recruiting coordinator, the film exchange coordinator, the perimeter position coach, and headed the strength and conditioning program.

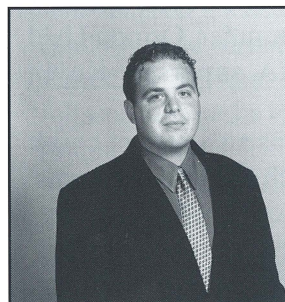

While at St. Edward's, Garcia also assisted with scouting, practice and game management, and on-floor coaching. He was the supervisor for SEU's new fitness center, taught kinesiology courses, and received his MAHS certification in sports management from the university in 2000. Garcia also has many years of experience as an instructor and camp director at various camps around Texas.

From 1996 to 1998, Garcia was a graduate assistant coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville, where he assisted with recruiting and scouting. He was the perimeter position coach, assisted with the strength and conditioning program, and monitored study hall and tutorial sessions.

Garcia was also a lecturer at Texas A&M-Kingsville, teaching courses in the health and kinesiology department. He received a master of science degree in kinesiology with a specialization in athletic administration in 1998.

"Roy put his time in at the Division II level, and I believe he deserved a break in Division I," head coach Kevin Johnson said. "He was a successful assistant at Division II, and I am sure he will help this team, especially the guards, improve this season."

Garcia received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Texas-Pan American in 1996. He majored in kinesiology with a minor in biology.

HARRIS ADLER

Assistant Coach

Harris Adler joins the Gents basketball staff after spending time as an assistant coach at the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia. Adler's responsibilities for the Gents include on-the-floor coaching, assisting with individual workouts, film coordination, community service and fundraising.

Before coming to Centenary, Adler spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Rowan University in Glassboro, New Jersey. His duties at Rowan included coordinating and overseeing recruiting, assisting in practice planning, scheduling, player development, and implementing a weight training program.

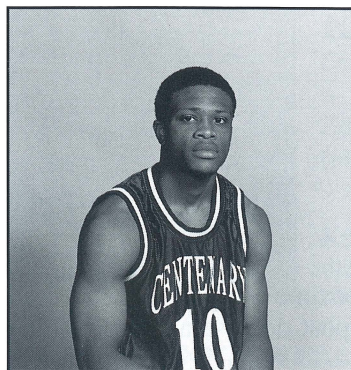

In the 1999-2000 season, Adler's first year at Rowan, the team finished with a record of 22-5. They advanced to the Division III regional semifinals. In 2000-2001, Rowan finished with a 14-11 record and advanced to their conference semifinals.

From June 1998 to September 1999, Adler was the assistant coach at Salem County Community College in Carney's Point, New Jersey. He coordinated high school recruiting, assisted in scouting opponents, film coordination, and assisted in player development. While at Salem County Community College, he served as the men's tennis coach and developed a nationally competitive tennis team with a two-year record of 25-8.

Adler has also been an instructor at several basketball camps in the Mid-Atlantic region. In the summers of 1999 and 2000, he worked at both the Saint Joseph's Basketball Camp in Philadelphia and the Eastern Invitational Basketball Camp in Shrewsbury, New Jersey.

"Harris gives us an East Coast contact, which is very important to have for recruiting top athletes from that region," said head coach Kevin Johnson.

Adler earned his master of arts degree in higher education administration from Rowan University in May 2001. He holds a bachelor of science degree in pharmacy from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Sciences, which he received in January 1998.

KEVIN ATAMAH

Guard
6-0, 185 - Senior
Richardson, Texas
(Richland College)

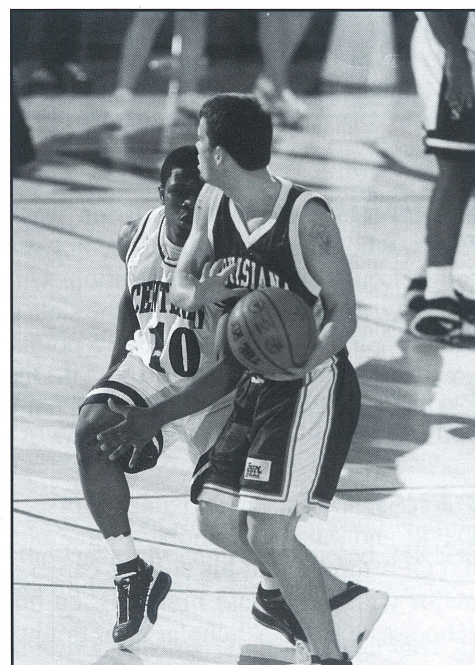

Kevin will be the leader on and off the court this year for the Gents. He will continue as one of the starting guards, a position he gained halfway through last season. He will also be a threat to score from the perimeter, and he will be counted on to be the top defender this season for Centenary.

AS A JUNIOR.....Kevin led the team last season in assists with 67 and tied for the team lead in steals with 27 thefts. His 7.3 points per game average placed him in a tie for third on the squad. He finished in double figures for points nine times, with a season high of 18 points in the Gents' victory over Louisiana Tech, when he shot 6-for-7 from the field and 5-for-6 from the free throw line. His season high for assists was eight in a game at Belmont University, a game in which he also tied his career high for steals in a game with three.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....Kevin led Richland College to a 27-5 record and the Division III Junior College Championship in 1999. Playing for Chester Story, he averaged 17 ppg, 5.5 assists per game, and four rebounds per game. He also shot 40 percent from behind the three-point line while at Richland. Kevin was named 1st Team All-Conference, All-Region, and the team's most valuable player.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Kevin played at Richardson High School in Texas under Steve Hudson, where he averaged 13 points and five assists per game. He was named to the All-City and All-District teams in 1998 while leading the Eagles to a 17-9 record.

PERSONAL.....Kevin is the oldest of four children born to Mathew and Bridget Atamah. Nicknamed K or K-Dog, Kevin was named Most Improved Student at Richardson High by the Dallas Morning News. He is majoring in business administration and minoring in accounting at Centenary. He hopes to own his own business or become a professional business counselor after graduation.

RETURNEES

BRIEN RABENHORST

Center
6-9, 255 - Senior
Baton Rouge, Louisiana
(Catholic High School)

Brien will fight for the starting center position and may also see time as a power forward for Centenary this season. Once again, the focus will be better post defense and rebounding help.

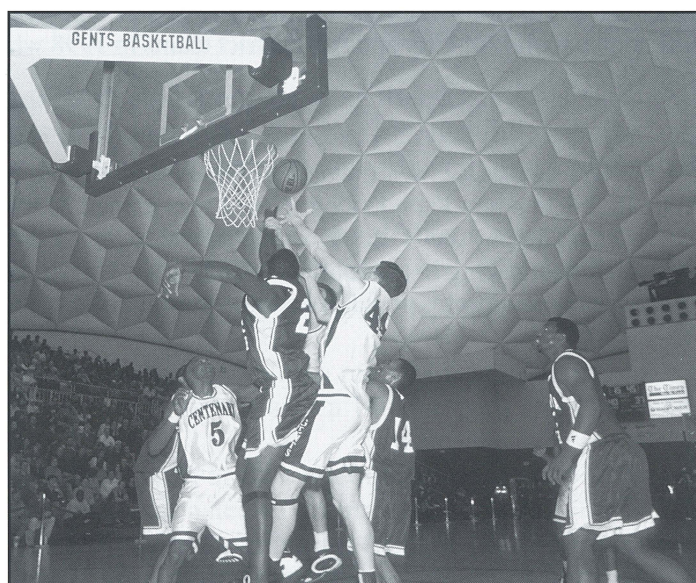

AS A JUNIOR.....Brien played in 26 games for the Gents last season, starting 13 of them. He averaged 2.3 points and three rebounds per game. Brien led the team in rebounding in three games last year, including seven rebounds in an 85-80 victory over Belmont University. He also earned a season-high eight rebounds in the opening-day victory over East Texas Baptist. His best performance offensively came in a 112-77 victory over Arkansas Baptist when he contributed ten points and three assists.

AS A SOPHOMORE.....Brien played in all 28 games during the 1999-2000 season, starting in two of them. He averaged just under ten minutes per game and 1.7 points per game. He grabbed 1.7 rebounds per game while shooting 47 percent from the field and 65 percent from the free throw line. Brien also earned 10 assists and seven steals during the season.

AS A FRESHMAN.....Brien played in 22 games as a freshman, averaging 1.5 points per game as well as 1.1 rebounds per game. He shot 68 percent from the field and 67 percent from the free throw line for the season. He was also named to the TAAC's All-Academic team with a 4.0 GPA.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Brien was a key player for the Bears, who went 18-12 in his senior season in the perennially tough Louisiana 5A Classification. Under head coach Glen Randow, the team advanced to the state quarterfinals in Brien's senior year, when he averaged 15 points and 12 rebounds per game. Brien was named to the All-District Academic Team and the composite All-Academic team.

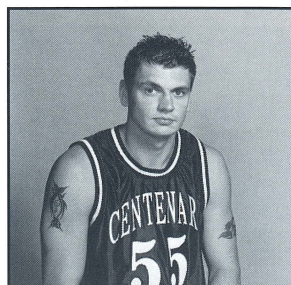

PERSONAL.....Nicknamed Horse, Brien is the oldest of David and Ann Rabenhorst's three children. Maintaining a 4.0 GPA throughout his college career, he is a bio-chemistry major with a business minor. Brien hopes to go to medical school as a Rhodes Scholar after graduation.

KRESIMIR TOMORAD

Center
6-10, 245 - Junior
Zapresic, Croatia
(Howard College)

Kresimir will fight for playing time at both the center and power forward positions this season for the Gents. Once again the coaches are looking for tough interior defense and help with low-post scoring from the Croatian.

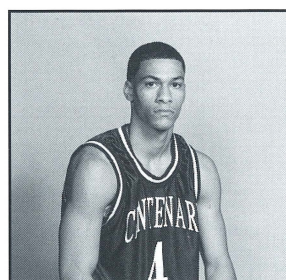

AS A SOPHOMORE.....Kresimir played in all 28 games during the 2000-2001 season, starting in 12 of them for the Gents. He averaged 2.7 points and 2.5 rebounds per game for Centenary while shooting a team-high 61 percent from the field. Kresimir almost earned a double-double against East Texas Baptist, scoring nine points and grabbing nine rebounds.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....Kresimir played at Howard College in Big Spring, TX under Tommy Collins and helped the team finish 22-9. He averaged ten points and eight rebounds while shooting 68 percent from the field. Kresimir was also named the top student-athlete at Howard.

PERSONAL.....Kresimir was born in Zagreb, Croatia and now resides in Zapresic. He is the youngest son of Bozidaz and Ana Tomorad and has one older brother. Known as Kresh, Krescho, or Bone Crusher, Kresimir is majoring in business with the hope of playing professional basketball in Europe or working in the United States in the business or economics field.

MICHAEL GALE

Forward
6-4, 200 - Sophomore
Youngsville, Louisiana
(Comeaux High)

Michael will be depended on to pick up much of the scoring slack that the team has lost from last season. His leaping ability thrills the fans, but it will be the improvement of the rest of his game that will thrill the coaches.

AS A FRESHMAN.....Michael started 13 of the 26 games that he played last season, emerging as the second leading scorer on the team. He broke double figures in points eight times, including six of the last eight games he played. He also earned a double-double at Southern University, scoring ten points and grabbing 12 rebounds.

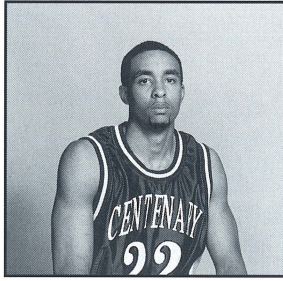

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Mike played for Ron Baillegeron and John Washington at Comeaux High. He averaged 21 points and seven rebounds as a senior, including a 31-point, 12-rebound effort in a triple overtime loss to Northside High. Mike was named All-Parish and All-District in both 1999 and 2000.

PERSONAL.....Nicknamed Mikie, Mike is the only son of Michael Sr. and Carolyn Gale. He has two sisters, one older and one younger. Mike is majoring in health and exercise science with an eye towards pursuing a career in sports medicine.

RETURNEES

DeMARIO HOOPER

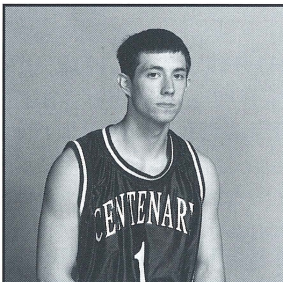

Guard/Forward
6-4, 180 - Sophomore Transfer
Texarkana, Texas
(University of Tulsa)

DeMario will be relied on heavily to make plays for the Gents in the 2001-2002 season. He practiced with the team last year, so he should know what the coaches and the team expect of him.

AS A FRESHMAN.....Playing at Tulsa, DeMario was a member of the squad that advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament. He appeared in 21 games, scoring 26 points and grabbing 15 rebounds during the season.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....DeMario played for Jim McManus at Texas High School, where he played every position on the floor. His team made two playoff appearances in DeMario's time there. His senior season, DeMario was named All-American, ABCD Top 60, McDonald's All-American nominee, first team All-State, District Player of the Year, and first team All-District. DeMario averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds per game in his senior season.

PERSONAL.....DeMario is the son of Charlie and Bertha Hooper. He has three sisters, two older and one younger. DeMario is majoring in health and exercise science. He has two plans after graduation: make it in the NBA or become a physical therapist.

ANDREW WISNIEWSKI

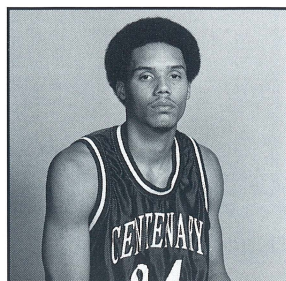

Guard
6-3, 185 - Sophomore Transfer
Staten Island, NY
(St. Peter's College)

After sitting out last season due to transfer rules, Andrew is ready to compete for the starting point guard position. His quickness and ball-handling ability will make it harder for opposing teams to successfully press the Gents in the backcourt.

AS A FRESHMAN.....Andrew started his career at St. Peter's College in Jersey City, New Jersey. He appeared in 12 games, averaging just over eight minutes per game. He scored 14 points, dished out ten assists, and also earned eight steals during his appearances.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Andrew played for St. Peter's High School in Staten Island, New York, where he received the Warren Jaques Award as Staten Island's top player his senior season. For the season, Andrew averaged 20.2 points, six assists and four steals per game. He scored 1,046 points during his varsity basketball career and was twice named CHSAA All-Star.

PERSONAL.....Andrew, nicknamed Wiz, is the youngest of David and Virginia Wisniewski's three children. He has one older brother and one older sister. At the present time he is undecided about his plans for the future.

DeANDRE CORNELIUS

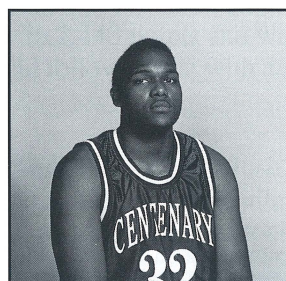

Guard/Forward
6-6, 195 - Junior Transfer
Joliet, Illinois
(Carl Albert State College)

DeAndre will be fighting for playing time at the wing position. The coaches are impressed with his shooting ability, and he also has the ability to post-up players in the paint.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....At Carl Albert State College, DeAndre averaged 24 points per game, leading Region II of the junior college level. He also led the region in free throw percentage and three-point field goal percentage. He was named the team's most valuable player. In one particular game, he scored 41 points and grabbed 14 rebounds.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....DeAndre played at Joliet Township High School, where he was named to the All-State, All-Area, All-District, and All-City teams. He averaged 23 points per game in leading the Steelmen to a 25-6 record his senior season. He scored 49 points and dished out 10 assists in one game, making nine three-point field goals along the way.

PERSONAL.....Nicknamed Dre-Day, DeAndre's mother is Debroah Stigler. He is one of five children, with an older brother, a younger brother, and two younger sisters. He also is the father of Trenton Marshon Cornelius, who is just under one year old. He is majoring in exercise science.

MELVIN DEWS

Forward
6-5, 247 - Junior Transfer
Oakwood, Texas
(Jacksonville College)

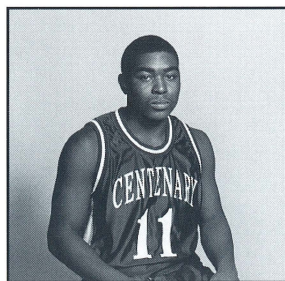

Melvin is the leading candidate to start at the power forward position for the Gents this season. He will add his defensive skills as well as his rebounding prowess, plus he will give the team another scoring option underneath the basket.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....Melvin was a third-team All-Conference selection while playing at Jacksonville Junior College. He was also listed in the Who's Who in Junior College.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....At Oakwood High School, Melvin scored 1,984 points in his career. He helped the Panthers qualify for the state playoffs every year, making it as far as the regional semifinals. He was named All-District and All-Area all four years, as well as earning All-Region and District MVP honors three years and All-State honors two years. As a freshman, his team finished with a 30-3 record and was ranked third in Texas.

PERSONAL.....Melvin, whose nickname is Da Mountain, is the youngest child of Melvin and Betty Dews. He has one older brother and one older sister. Melvin is presently majoring in sociology with plans to become a counselor or social worker after graduation.

NEWCOMERS

CORNELIUS RILEY

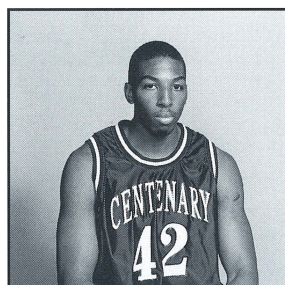

Guard
6-0, 185 - Junior Transfer
Chicago, IL
(Kennedy-King College)

Cornelius will be looking for playing time at the point guard position. The coaches feel that he is a good distributor of the ball and he will be able to give the team a different look when he is on the floor.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....Cornelius was the starting point guard at Kennedy-King College the past two seasons. Last year he led the region in assists.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Cornelius played at Farragut Academy alongside NBA superstar Kevin Garnett and Arizona's Michael Wright. As a point guard for the Admirals, he led his team to one city championship and two Christmas tournament titles. The team earned a record of 89-15 during his four years, with a fourth place finish in the state in 1998. In his junior year Cornelius was named All-District and All-State. During his senior season he averaged 16 points and six assists per game, including a 35-point, 13-assist performance.

PERSONAL.....Most of Cornelius' friends call him Cedric. He is the oldest of six children, with two younger brothers and three younger sisters. He is majoring in exercise science with plans to become a teacher.

RONALD MICKEL

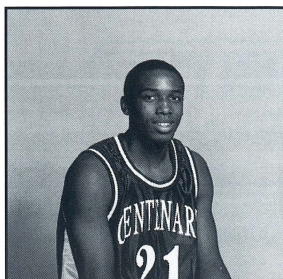

Forward
6-5, 208 - Sophomore Transfer
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
(Carl Albert State College)

Ronald reminds the coaching staff of Olufemi Odukoya, the leading rebounder for the Gents the past two seasons. He is a tough, rugged player who will see time at the power forward position and is expected to give the team added depth.

AT JUNIOR COLLEGE.....Ronald, a teammate of fellow transfer DeAndre Cornelius, was the team's best defensive post player and enforcer. He helped Carl Albert State to an 18-13 record last season.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Under Dave Simms at the Classen School of Advanced Studies, Ronald averaged 23 points and 11 rebounds per game in his senior season. He led the Comets to the District 4A championship in Oklahoma and was named All-City and All-State after the season. Ronald also won the A.C.A.C. All-Star Slam Dunk Championship.

PERSONAL.....Nicknamed Ron, Ronald is the son of Pat Garvin. He has a younger brother, an older brother, and an older sister. He is majoring in business administration with a minor in finance and economics. After graduation, Ronald hopes to be self-employed in the real estate business.

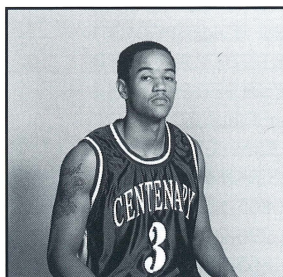

CHAD MACLIES

Forward
6-6, 218 - Freshman
Kingwood, Texas
(Kingwood HS)

A natural small forward, Chad has surprised many people with his progress at power forward during the conditioning workouts, and he has shown that he is ready to play this season.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Chad played for Royce Huseman at Kingwood High School in Texas. After earning first team All-District honors his junior season, Chad came back to repeat as first team All-District his senior year, as well as being named district most valuable player and ranked 33rd in Texas. He led the Mustangs to the district championship by averaging 18 points, ten rebounds, three steals, and two blocks per game. Chad had 16 20-point games during the 25-9 campaign.

PERSONAL.....Chad is the only son of Charlie and Vickie MacLies. He has one older sister. He is majoring in business administration and minoring in computer science. After graduation, he plans to be a computer analyst.

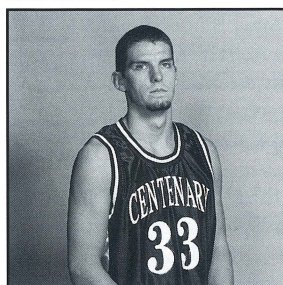

JOSH THIBODEAUX

Guard
6-2, 170 - Freshman
Eunice, Louisiana
(Eunice HS)

Josh will be counted on to add scoring punch for the Gents for the next few seasons. He has the ability to help the Gents offensively when needed this year.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Josh was the leading scorer in Louisiana for the past two seasons. In his senior year under Robert Trent, he averaged 32 points, seven rebounds, four assists, and five steals per game. Josh finished his varsity career with 2,443 points and was a McDonald's All-American candidate. He led the Bobcats to the state finals in his freshman year and followed that with another state playoff appearance in his senior year. His high school honored him by retiring his number 12.

PERSONAL.....Josh's parents are John and Gilda Thibodeaux. He has one older brother and one younger sister. Josh also has a child named Kailen RaShawn Thibodeaux. He is majoring in physical therapy, and he is looking to be successful in whatever career he chooses after graduation.

JASON ZIMMER

Center
6-10, 215 - Freshman
Nuevo, California
(Perris HS)

Jason is being groomed as the future center for Centenary. Right now, he has the size, but not the strength to compete at the Division I level. The coaches hope that over time, he will gain that strength and experience to become a force for the Gents in the paint.

IN HIGH SCHOOL.....Jason earned a letter in basketball his last two seasons playing for Andre Smith and Ralph Landers. He was named first team All-League both seasons, and he also earned second team All-Riverside County honors his senior season. Jason led the Panthers to a 17-8 record his senior season, when he averaged 15 points, 15 rebounds and five blocks per game. He was named the Perris High School Most Valuable Player both seasons he played for the Panthers.

PERSONAL.....Nicknamed Jay, Jason is the son of Mike and Pam Zimmer. He has one older sister and one younger brother. Jason plans to major in business with a minor in information technology. His future plans involve getting a business degree, returning to California, and getting a job in the business world.

The 2001-02 Centenary Gents coaching staff: Roy Garcia II, Kevin Johnson, Harris Adler, and Arturo Ormond.

PREVIOUS SEASON REVIEW

2000-2001 SEASON IN REVIEW

For the Centenary Gents basketball team, the 2000-2001 season will be best remembered for individual performances. One individual in particular.

Senior Ronnie McCollum, from Fayette, Alabama, exceeded the lofty expectations that people had established for him before the season started. It was thought that he would barely pass Robert Parish for second on Centenary's all-time scoring list. He blew by the Chief and nearly caught Willie Jackson.

It was thought that he would compete for the Division I scoring title, like he had the previous year. There was no competition. McCollum finished with a 29.1 scoring average, 5.3 points per game better than Kyle Hill from Eastern Illinois.

However, the Gents realized on several occasions that one player can't win a basketball game by himself. Centenary finished with an 8-19 record, but competed with many opponents with their toughness and never-say-die attitude.

The Gents opened the season with their best start in 20 years, winning their first two games. Against East Texas Baptist, McCollum showed that he could score at will, earning 36 points in only 24 minutes on the court. That was followed by a 35-point performance in Centenary's 70-63 victory over Southwest Texas State.

Then came the road trip. Nine consecutive games away from the Gold Dome, in six different states, over the course of 36 days. Opponents the caliber of Arkansas, Marquette, Kent State, Iowa, and Minnesota. Despite losing the games, the Gents impressed opposing coaches such as Arkansas' Nolan Richardson and Iowa's Steve Alford.

Centenary opened the new year at home, getting revenge on Tennessee-Martin, the team that defeated them on their first game of the road trip. McCollum scored 35 points, and the Gents broke their losing streak with a 78-66 win.

The Gents played three of the next four games on the road, losing all those games. Somehow, the team was able to follow that stretch with the biggest win of the season. Before a near-capacity crowd at the Gold Dome, the Gents defeated in-state rival Louisiana Tech 74-63. McCollum scored 37 points, but he was not the only player in double figures that January night. Junior guard Kevin Atamah added 18 points that evening on 6-of-7 shooting from the field and 5-of-6 shooting from the free throw line.

The Gents received some momentum from that game, winning the next two contests at the Gold Dome. Both games were not decided until the very end, but McCollum made sure the Gents came out on top both nights.

Against Belmont, it was his free throw shooting that put the Gents ahead. McCollum shot 17-of-19 from the line, including several free throws when the game was on the line. For the game against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, McCollum turned to his shooting from the field. He shot 13-of-25 from the field that night on the way to 40 points, the last two on a jumper with one second left to give Centenary the 82-80 victory.

They competed throughout the game with Belmont in Nashville, but Atamah could not hit the tying basket as time ran out and the Gents lost 76-73. That was followed by consecutive double-digit losses to Lipscomb, including the first loss of the season at home.

The last two games at home proved to be the most disappointing losses of the season. Against a talented Texas-Pan American squad, the Gents had the lead through most of the second half. The Broncs stayed close and eventually took the lead. Centenary's efforts to come back fell just short as the Gents suffered a 68-66 loss.

Centenary then faced in-state rival Northwestern State on Senior Night. Despite McCollum's 44 points, a career high and the most by a Centenary player at the Gold Dome, the Demons came out on top 80-78. Northwestern State used the game to start a winning streak that led to the Southland Conference Tournament Championship and an opening round victory in the NCAA Tournament.

McCollum scored 787 points on the season, breaking Tom Kerwin's school record for most points in a single season. He had 14 games scoring 30 or more points, including three times scoring 40 or more points. He hit a school-record 345 three-point shots in his career.

After the season, McCollum was named Louisiana Sports Writers Association Player of the Year, Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American, NABC First-Team in District Eight, and First Team All-Independent.

Other players made contributions throughout the season. Senior Olufemi Odukoya led the team in rebounding for the second consecutive season, with 158 total rebounds (5.9 rpg). Freshman Michael Gale electrified the Gold Dome crowd with his ability to leap over people and finished as the team's second leading scorer.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome

The 2001-02 Centenary Gentlemen's Basketball Media Guide is designed to assist the media with their coverage of Gents' basketball this season. Additional information, including media releases and photographs may be obtained by contacting the Sports Information Office at (318) 869-5092 or (318) 841-7260, faxing at (318) 869-5128, or writing to: P.O. Box 41188, Shreveport, LA 71134-1188.

Media Credentials

Media credentials and photography passes are for admittance to the Gold Dome, the media room, and the courtside press tables. These passes are limited to working press only.

For those covering the Gents on a regular basis, it is necessary to request a season pass on company letterhead. For those needing passes for specific games and not the entire season, requests must be made no sooner than one week in advance of that game and no later than one day prior to the game. Credentials will not be granted on game day. A reminder, media seating on press row is limited so make sure you request a pass on a timely basis.

Requests for season passes and game passes should be directed to assistant sports information director Jason Behenna.

Season passes will not be mailed, but will be made available in the Sports Information Office prior to the beginning of the 2001-02 season. Please call to make sure they are ready.

Credentials that are not picked up will be available prior to tip-off at the Will Call window, located at the North entrance to the Gold Dome.

Please keep your press credential securely fastened and visible at all times to allow for identification by security and game management personnel.

Game Day Services

The press room is located on the lower level of the Gold Dome, adjacent to the men's basketball office, and serves three purposes. It is a working press area, an interview room and a hospital-ity area.

Please be respectful to those members of the media who are trying to work. For those writers wishing to send stories from the Gold Dome, there are several phone lines available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Those wishing to broadcast from the Gold Dome should make requests through the Sports Information Department. One courtesy line will be made available at no charge to the official station of the visiting team. Visiting radio line number is (318) 869-5660; trouble line number is (318) 869-5400.

Game Information

Game information is provided by the Centenary Sports Information Department and includes a game program, fact sheets, media guides and statistics for each team. Halftime statistics and play-by-play sheets are delivered to the working press area. Flash stats are brought immediately to broadcast outlets following timeouts. Complete game booklets are assembled and made available in the working press room.

The Gents' locker room is closed to the media. All interviews will take place in the press room, no exceptions will be made. Player interviews must be arranged through assistant SID Jason Behenna. Visiting player interviews must be arranged with the visiting SID.

Coach Kevin Johnson will be available for interviews directly following the game. A member of the Centenary SID staff will coordinate interview sessions. Due to travel, the visiting team members will be brought to the interview room first, then Centenary players will follow.

Interviews

Players and coaches are generally available for interviews daily, except for game days. Please request all interviews with a minimum of 24 hours notice through the Sports Information Office.

Phone interviews with Centenary players will be conducted on a call-back basis only, usually immediately before practice sessions.

Interviews with Gents' head coach Kevin Johnson and his staff can be arranged during workday hours Monday through Friday, by calling the Sports Information Office.

All practices, as a general rule, are closed to the media unless a request has been approved by coach Johnson through the Sports Information Office.
